Hi Veronica: I have told them that the letter will come tomorrow. They will be moving tonight based on my and Steve's commitment/ credibility. Tomorrow morning, and with buy-in from Sgt. Richardson, they plan to have two supervisors scout and better assess the work involved – everything is being coordinated with Sgt. Richardson and they are in touch with him.

Regards,

Jasan

Good Afternoon Deputy DiMarco, Chief Thompson and Supt. Eaton:

Summarizing below the work being done by us and Sgt. Richardson on an updated request for tow trucks. We need your assistance with the letter requested by the towing companies.

- 13 heavy tow trucks requested and support equipment, 11 tow trucks confirmed so far from three [REDACTED] towing companies. Working on securing more, if we are able to do so.
- Equipment needs to be in place by tomorrow afternoon – some/ most of the equipment may be moved tonight.
- Important: All three towing companies have requested letter that the province/ OPP will cover costs resulting from any damage to their tow trucks by protestors; and indemnity from any damage or other claims from owners of the vehicles that are towed upon police direction.
 - The letter above is critical as their insurance companies have specifically told them that they will not cover these risks.
- Fees and Payment:
 - Payment will be as per Tow Zone Pilot rates.
 - I will send a separate email with an initial estimate and we will update the estimate as we get more information.
 - Payment will be made by the OPP as previously discussed.
- Further details are being coordinated with Sgt. Richardson.

Regards,

Jasan Boparai, P.Eng. | Director
